ALIAS - Page 2

- b. Age and Date of Birth: Unknown to Source.
- c. Family Status: Subject is married. Source knows no other facts about subject's family status.
- d. Language Section - degree of fluency is good.
- e. Political Awareness: Subject is a CP member, degree of conviction is unknown to Source.
- f. International Awareness: Subject has no information.
- g. Personal Awareness: Source was told by Captain (Gen) KERNER that subject got along better with the Inspector IS than the other AVH officers in Budapest. The FBI tried to surveil subject in a rather friendly fashion, and when Hungarian-Soviet foreign relations improved, they joked about having had to surveil subject.
- h. AVH History: Subject has been with the AVH since 1948-1949. He went to Budapest in 1948 and was head of the Headquarters in the summer of 1950. From 1950 onward, however, he spent more time in Budapest than he did in Belgrade. Subject was scheduled to replace Gen. Ivan KRALJIC in Belgrade, however, when Mr. Bill James KERNER was ready to return from Vienna to take over. KERNER left in Budapest headquarters, subject's assignment was changed to Vienna. It is believed that subject left for Vienna in the fall of 1954, because Source saw him for the last time in late summer 1954.
- i. While in Budapest, subject handled GY-ERY SIPOB (cover name GY-ERY).
- j. International Alias: Subject used the name "BERTHEZ" with SIPOB.
- k. Other Aliases and Circumstances: Unknown to Source.
- l. Other Personal Details: Unknown to Source.
